

Working Effectively with the LGBTQ Community and Creating Change within your Organization

Registration for September 13th Grand Junction Training

The training is open to service providers working primarily with survivors of intimate partner violence and sexual assault. Shelter directors, victim advocates, therapists, support group facilitators, case managers, program directors, and executive directors are highly encouraged to attend.

Completed forms must be received no later than September 2nd.

E-mail to crystal@coavp.org or CAVP c/o Crystal PO Box 181085 Denver, CO 80218

Name: _____

Title: _____

Number of Years at Current Job: _____

Phone: _____

E-mail: _____

Organization Name & Address: _____

Organizational Mission:

Have you attended a past training led by CAVP? yes no If yes, when? _____

Do you plan to use skills and knowledge from the training to facilitate larger change at your organization?

yes no

List any changes you would like to make:

Briefly describe the most pressing challenges your organization faces in serving the LGBTQ community?

For Questions contact:

Crystal Middlestadt, Director of Training & Education at 303-839-5204 or crystal@coavp.org
Colorado Anti-Violence Program P.O. Box 181085, Denver, CO 80218, 1-888-557-4441 24 hour crisis line, www.coavp.org